

Turkey: Boğaziçi University

Boğaziçi University in Istanbul was founded in 1863 and offers study in a wide variety of disciplines in areas of science, social science, and humanities. Reed students will take regular classes taught in English with students from Turkey, the region, and around the world. This elite, highly selective university will allow Reed students to take courses of their choice including those that focus on the topics of the Middle East.

Qualifications:	There are no program requirements, just prerequisites for certain courses.
Term duration:	Year or Semester
Typical course load:	5 courses/semester
Courses recorded in:	Semester Hours
Translates to Reed units:	4:1 conversion of semester credits to Reed units Courses typically 3 to 4 credits
Grading system:	AA, BA, BB, CB, CC, DC, DD, F, P
Translates to Reed grades*	means. Ree